ABOUT F&C

RYLIE E. COOPER (She/Her/Hers)
chairperson

Rylie is a junior at the Pennsylvania State University. She sought a seat on the State College Borough Council in 2017, where she was endorsed by Mayor Elizabeth Goreham, after involvement on the Hillary Clinton presidential campaign. Rylie is deeply involved in activism, becoming a local staple in the causes she fights for.

ALEXANDRA E. KOHR (She/Her/Hers)
chief of staff

Alexandra is a sophomore in the Schreyer Honors College at the Pennsylvania State University, pursuing degrees in History and Public Relations. Currently, she is a founding member of F.O.R.M. Consulting where she works with high school students in the college application process. Additionally, Alexandra spends her free time on the Asexuality Visibility & Education Network (AVEN).

ANDREW JOSEPH UHRING (He/Him/His)
digital officer

Andrew is a junior at the Pennsylvania State University. He is studying Political Science with a minor in Economics. Andrew's favorite things are politics and actively participating in College Democrats at the federal, state, and local level, in addition to working on political campaigns. In his free time, he can be found cooking, binge-watching The West Wing, or more likely on Twitter. One of his favorite quotes is "decisions are made by those who show up."

MICHAEL D. STRAW (He/Him/His)
secretary

Michael is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University with a degree in Political Science and has lived in the Centre Region for six years. He chaired the Penn State College Republicans in his senior year and worked for the largest LGBTQA Republican organization in the U.S.. During his time in student government, Michael helped to author and pass pro-LGBTQA legislation that would impact local, state, and national policies.

ANTHONY J. ZARZYCKI
(He/Him/His)
treasurer

Anthony is a current Pennsylvania State University student with a history in local activism, electoral politics, and community organizing. After the Pulse Nightclub shooting, he was the first student to speak directly to the State College Borough Council about reforming hate crime laws, independently galvanizing close to one hundred signatures and interest of community members in the immediate days after.
